

I oppose the relaxation of current regulations on language and nudity. Not just because of the children, but for the mental wellbeing of all people. Morality cannot be allowed to change at the whim of the society.